

United States Park Police
1100 Ohio Drive, SW
Washington, DC 20242
Phone: 202-619-7266
www.nps.gov/uspp

United States Park Police News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: January 13, 2017

Contact: Sergeant Anna Rose, anna_rose@nps.gov, 202-619-7163 (USPP)

Park Police Investigating Two Armed Robberies

Washington – The United States Park Police are investigating two armed robberies that may be connected reported near the Old Aqueduct Bridge. There were no reported injuries as a result of either incident.

The first incident occurred on January 6th shortly after 8 pm. Victims reported being robbed at gunpoint by three black males all approximately 16-18 years old.

Suspect 1: Approximately 5'11", husky build, wearing a mask and armed with a machine gun

Suspect 2: Approximately 5'9", thin, armed with a handgun Suspect 3: Approximately 5'6" wearing dark clothing.

The second incident occurred on January 11th shortly after 3 pm. Victims reported being robbed at gunpoint by two black males both approximately 19-20 years old.

Suspect 1: Approximately 6', dark skin, medium build, shoulder length dreadlocks, wearing a mask and armed with a machine gun

Suspect 2: Approximately 5'9", dark skin, thin build, short hair that is shaved on the sides, red and black hat, black Adidas jacket, black shoes with red soles, armed with a handgun

Anyone with information is asked to contact the United States Park Police tip line at 202-610-8737.

www.nps.gov/uspp

About the United States Park Police: USPP provides law enforcement to safeguard lives, protect national treasures and symbols of democracy, and preserve the natural and cultural resources entrusted to the care of the National Park Service. USPP officers are located in the Washington, New York, and San Francisco metropolitan areas. The force was created by President George Washington in 1791.

About the National Park Service: More than 20,000 National Park Service employees care for America's 414 national parks and work with communities across the nation to help preserve local history and create close-to-home recreational opportunities. Learn more at www.nps.gov.